PHOTOGRAPHY & FILMING APPLICATION FORM

Anyone wishing to photograph or film (videotape) inside the Longhouse or Xwi7xwa Library, including their grounds, for marketing, recruitment, public relations or other business purposes needs permission from the First Nations House of Learning.

To request permission, please complete this application form and send it to both the FNHL Communications Officer, fnhl.research@ubc.ca, and the First Nations Longhouse Building Manager, cwasiak@fnhl.longhouse.ubc.ca.

One-week advance notice is required. Thank you.

Note: Photographing and videotaping events strictly for public information or internal documentation purposes, including personal use, is permitted; therefore, no application is necessary in those instances.

C. Terms & Conditions

1. The First Nations House of Learning (FNHL) is the custodian of the Longhouse, including Xwi7xwa Library, and the original artworks associated with them, thus it reserves the right to restrict how they are depicted in images and film (video).
2. FNHL staff must approve the proposed use of images and film (video) associated with the Longhouse to ensure their images are not used in a manner inconsistent with the FNHL's mandate or the artists' intention. Therefore, photography and video recordings for marketing, recruitment, public relations or other business purposes need to be assessed and permitted. Third parties associated with your event are required to seek permission separately.
3. FNHL reserves the right to reject proposals that do not fall within its mandate or could be construed as being disrespectful, misrepresenting or unduly appropriating or commoditizing the building and its artworks. Copy of proofs or footage may be required prior to production, publication, or release.

4. Photographing and videotaping individuals or models for business purposes require their written consent. Securing their consent is your responsibility. To learn more, and to obtain UBC consent forms, see this FAQ.
5. In addition to gaining FNHL permission to use the First Nations Longhouse, UBC has its own guidelines for commercial filming and photography on campus. To learn more, visit here.
6. UBC Film Students: see campus guidelines.
7. Approval is not granted until this form has been signed either by the FNHL Communications Officer or Building Manager or designate.
8. Permission is granted for one-time use only. Additional use related to this application can be requested and approved by email to the FNHL Communications Officer or Longhouse Building Manager or a designate. A copy of proofs or footage may be required prior to additional permission being granted.
